About Me Paragraph:

I, Navneet am now a Computer Science Undergraduate Student at Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest from Bengaluru, India with a deep interest in Computer Science, Mathematics and other related domains. My inquisitive nature has led to my enthusiasm and passion for Computer Science and the quickly evolving technology, and I am eager to study the specialisations that exist in the field. I am a diligent, and optimistic person. I always make sure to maintain a high standard in any task I undertake. I am a team player who prefers to collaborate with teammates.

One of my umpteen passions is photography, filmmaking, and blogging. This website includes a few insights or memories from my lifetime, accompanied by or without a story.

Photograph captions to be used in this page:

- Text1:

"The secret to a good morning is to watch the sunrise with an open heart." - Anthony T Hincks

I reminisce the day I started off with the awesome sunrise, above the clouds when I was flying from New Delhi, India to Chandigarh, India on a flight on 28.09.2019

- Text2:

8 hours in Paris !!

2nd October 2022: Landed at Paris's Charles De Gaulle Airport where I waited for about 8 hours for my connecting flight while I processed the fact that I'm actually in PARIS!!

- Text3:

"A river never wants to turn into a lake! And a person who likes to flow like a river never wants to be something stagnant like a lake!"

- Mehmet Murat ildan

Clearly, I'm not the person who wants to stay stagnant like a lake but to keep flowing like the river Beas. A picture shot on the banks of river Beas near Leh-Manali highway near Jogini Falls, Manali, Himachal Pradesh, India on 02.10.2019

- Text4:

"Nature is pleased with simplicity. And nature is no dummy." -Isaac Newton
Not a long while ago just before the pandemic, my trip to Gokarna in India was a very delightful trip and on the last day while walking along the beach this spot near our resort caught my eye. It is one of the only places I had been to that included a beach, a stream and a hill in one frame!
